Christofle, Malmaison, rectangular butter tray, silver plated

This silver-plated butter tray belongs to the Malmaison collection from the house of Christofle, which typifies the Empire style and features characteristic strict lines and sophisticated materials – crowned with a frieze of palm leaves. Measuring 18.8 x 13.3 cm, the rectangular tray is more than just a noticeably elegant eye-catcher on the table. Lift the lid by its aesthetic handle in the form of a lotus flower and you will discover a practical, dishwasher-safe crystal glass dish on a shining silver-plated tray. This means that the butter can be stored separately in the fridge while the silver-plated tray, in accordance with its eye-striking design, becomes a timeless eye-catcher on the table or in the kitchen. The collection also includes a rounded butter tray and other stylish pieces, which are also available in sterling silver.

About Christofle

The Malmaison series crowns every table and interior design: Created in 1967, the series is regarded as Christofle's Empire model, named after the Château de la Malmaison near Paris, the favored country residence of the imperial couple Napoleon Bonaparte and Joséphine. The characteristic elements of this splendid style are the symmetrical decor with water leaf motifs and openwork lotus leaves.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
