Christofle, Malmaison, milk jug, 0.3 l, silver plated

This silver-plated milk jug takes us on a journey through time into the imperial empire of Napoleon Bonaparte. The Malmaison collection from the house of Christofle typifies the Empire style and features characteristic strict lines and sophisticated materials. The aesthetic milk jug is 12.5 cm high, has a capacity of 0.3 l and is perfectly insulated – both cold and warm milk retains its temperature, while the handle stays cold. What really convinces, however, is its extraordinary design: Delicately engraved palmette borders and lotus flowers as well as the extravagantly curved handle radiate imperial glamour. The extensive collection also offers a tea or coffee pot as well as a sugar dish in the same magnificent design – guaranteeing that the next coffee round will be a stylish highlight.

About Christofle

The Malmaison series crowns every table and interior design: Created in 1967, the series is regarded as Christofle's Empire model, named after the Château de la Malmaison near Paris, the favored country residence of the imperial couple Napoleon Bonaparte and Joséphine. The characteristic elements of this splendid style are the symmetrical decor with water leaf motifs and openwork lotus leaves.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
