Christofle, Malmaison, water jug, 1.7 l, silver plated

This silver-plated water jug takes us on a journey through time into the imperial empire of Napoleon Bonaparte. The Malmaison collection from the house of Christofle typifies the Empire style and features characteristic strict lines and sophisticated materials. The aesthetic water jug has a capacity of 1.7 liters and convinces with an extraordinary design: Delicately engraved palmette borders and the extravagantly curved handle radiate true imperial glamour. In combination with the shining trays from this extensive collection, the serving of water becomes stylish highlight.

About Christofle

The Malmaison series crowns every table and interior design: Created in 1967, the series is regarded as Christofle's Empire model, named after the Château de la Malmaison near Paris, the favored country residence of the imperial couple Napoleon Bonaparte and Joséphine. The characteristic elements of this splendid style are the symmetrical decor with water leaf motifs and openwork lotus leaves.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
