Christofle, Albi, napkin ring, silver-plated

Not only the name of the Albi series by Christofle, but also the clear design with strict, straight lines is inspired by the Gothic cathedral of the French town of Albi. The beautifully shaped napkin ring has a height of 3 cm and features high-quality silver plating. Napkin rings are an absolute must-have for every stylishly laid table. They are placed around high-quality cotton napkins, providing them with the finishing touch. In combination with the many other pieces from the collection, which are also available in sterling silver, the enjoyment of fine meals becomes almost a secondary matter. Whether as an interior design feature or an element of the well-laid table, these exclusive products are guaranteed to make a striking impression.

About Christofle

Timeless elegance: Since its launch in 1968, the Albi series has not only been a classic from traditional company Christofle, but also includes the widest selection of products of all collections of its kind. Thanks to its clear, timeless design, this sophisticated series convinces in combination with both classic and modern table decoration. The French town of Albi with its famous linear cathedral in Gothic style is the namesake and design inspiration for this range.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
