Christofle, Perles, napkin ring, silver-plated

With Perles, traditional company Christofle created a cutlery series back in 1876 that is both splendid and unobtrusive. The 3-cm-high, silver-plated napkin ring features a fine beaded ornamentation as a delicate border, letting it shine in classic elegance. It not only serves as a traditional christening gift but is also suitable as a timeless table accessory for any occasion. The collection includes other extraordinary pieces – also in sterling silver.

About Christofle

A design classic: The Perles series from Christofle is a series that is rich in tradition. The design was created in 1876 in line with the French art and architectural style of Louis XVI of the 18th century. Characteristic for this is the wide band of beads which, like a pearl necklace, runs in half-relief as an excellent ornamentation for these elegant pieces. The design is taken from the 1930 Cardeilhac box. It demonstrates the precious handwork of the Christofle silversmiths and is a reflection of the company's expertise.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
