Christofle, Hudson, coffee spoon

The Hudson series is a memoire of the collaboration between the Danish designer Christian Fjordingstad and traditional French company Christofle which started in 1924. Inspired by the Art Deco building style, this cutlery combines the elegance of form with high-quality materials. The 14-cm-long coffee spoon features classic lines with a soft arc on the wide handle that breaks through the clear longitudinal strip engraving. Made from stainless steel, it is dishwasher-safe and suitable for every occasion of coffee and tea enjoyment. With the products from this extraordinary collection, cutlery becomes a highlight on the table.

About Christofle

With the Hudson series, Christofle created a sophisticated collection in 1939 that has not lost any of its relevance to this day. In 2010, the stylish art deco design was reintegrated into Christofle's steel collection and is now inspiring design enthusiasts and lovers of refined beauty alike. With its classic shapes and clear yet elegant lines reminiscent of the Hudson River in America, this timeless series enriches every table and gives it a sophisticated and exquisite touch.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
