The impressing 10 mm deep plate glass alone crowns ROOM to a visual heavyweight on any desktop or sideboard. The pleasantly understated glass frame in retro-look is perfectly suited for its own place within the office. Thanks to the mirrored backside and in connection with its elegantly swung and practical holder, it belongs to those few frames that are also a delight to view from the back. The bottom edge of high-polished nickel displays a high degree of aesthetics and simultaneously offers a type of stage for all of your personal photos and images.
