Mouth-blown glass storage jars, which are perfect for displaying raw ingredients on open shelves and for adding a decorative touch. The cool look of the smoke-coloured jars, which come in four sizes, harmonises well with the Nordic kitchen style. The look is perfected by the solid, oiled oak lids, which are secured to each jar with a leather strap. Use the jars for nuts, muesli or other foods, which can now be placed on display and within easy reach of anyone feeling a little peckish.

The unique and decorative mouth-blown glass is beautiful in its own right. At the same time, the smoke-coloured glass protects the contents from sunlight, preserving flavours and colours. The lid is quick and easy to remove and replace, and seals the jar tightly.
