Georg Jensen's iconic Fusion collection allows you to combine different rings to create your own narrative. Tell the story of your love or reflect your personality through endless possibilities and combinations. This white gold and diamond centre ring is a beautiful abstract shape in itself but interlocks seamlessly with other rings in the collection.

Designed by Nina Koppel, the Fusion collection is unique in as much as the wearer is an intrinsic part of the creative process. The pieces work alone but also join with others to create unique and emotionally powerful stories.

The Fusion centre ring is made from 18 carat white gold studded with brilliant cut diamonds. Combine with other Fusion rings to symbolise love, life or personality.
