Bring something emotional to your appearance with the bold and chic double loop OFFSPRING earrings.

The OFFSPRING collection tells the story of a mother and her child, and the unconditional love and unbreakable bond that exists between them.

The OFFSPRING earrings were inspired by the egg shape, and the symbolism it stands for. The egg often represents creation, in particular birth – and all the promise a new life holds with experiences and adventures.

When designer Jacqueline Rabun created the OFFSPRING collection, it was important to her that the pieces become a part of your body, and give you confidence when wearing them.

The OFFSPRING double loop earrings are made out of sterling silver.
