Both bold and beautiful, the Mercy pendant is an expressive statement piece with a timeless appeal.

The soft and smooth curves of the jewellery symbolise time and the way it flows, whereas the fluid shape represent life and its transformative nature. The gap in the middle acts as a reminder to be aware of where you stand in life, and the path you are about to follow.

The Mercy collection is another exciting collaboration between American designer Jacqueline Rabun and Georg Jensen, and as is typical when the two come together the result is emotional in both design and background.

The large version of the Mercy pendant is voluminous and sensual yet it still offers a contemporary feel and the ability to mix and match with other pendants.
