- Design year: 2019

Running and running, seemingly forever like gorgeous waves, the continuous shape of the Mercy double ring invokes memories of the powerful elegance held by the ocean.

It captures the essence of time's constant flow in a physical form, and reminds us that it is the unexpected twists and turns in life that truly define us.

The Mercy double ring is an untraditional and bold piece of jewellery, and it creates the illusion of wearing two rings, but if you look closer it surprises you as one strand of silver wraps smoothly around your fingers.

The Mercy collection was designed by Jacqueline Rabun, the acclaimed American designer known for her emotional approach and a design language characterised by sculptural and organic forms.

The Mercy double ring is made from sterling silver.
