Product information "Necklace with pendant 60 cm sterling silver 925"

Like a small sculptural piece of silver the Mercy pendant hangs at the end of the chain, gracefully following your movements.

The fluid shape of the jewellery symbolises the way life transforms, and evolves through our experiences. The soft curves represent the flow of time and how its unexpected twists and turns might define us.

The Mercy collection was created by Jacqueline Rabun. As is typical when Rabun and Georg Jensen collaborate, the designs are both sculptural and bold, yet the different pieces have a playful and contemporary feel that make them easy to style with other jewellery – and allow the wearers to create their own personal expression.

The Mercy pendant is expertly crafted from sterling silver. You can easily the length of the chain by using the loops.

There are 3 different versions of the Mercy pendant: small, medium and large.
