Christofle, Vertigo, knife rest/napkin ring, silver-plated

Created by French designer Andrée Putman for traditional company Christofle, the Vertigo series features a thick, subtly asymmetrical ring that rounds off the extraordinary silver pieces in style. This theme receives a special focus in the silver-plated knife rest. The dynamic ring with a diameter of 5 cm not only sets the scene for beautiful cutlery, it can also be used as a napkin ring which not only holds the napkin practically in place, but also serves to decorate the well-laid table. The extensive collection offers elegant interior and table accessories that let their surroundings radiate inspiration and brilliance.

About Christofle

The silver pieces from Christofle's Vertigo collection surprise with simple elegance and detailed sophistication. Created by the French interior designer Andrée Putman, these exceptional pieces feature a distinctive asymmetrical ring that tastefully adorns trays, candlesticks and other interior accessories.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
