Christofle, L'âme de Christofle, dessert knife

The L'âme de Christofle collection is another outstanding cutlery line that combines the tradition of Christofle with modern elements. In the process, opposites merge into one – fine, straight lines form a synergy with solid, stainless steel. In addition to the polished, gleaming finish in gold, the new pieces in the collection also shine in copper and black thanks to the modern PVD color application technology carried out in Portugal. Thanks to its minimalist shape, the 19 cm long, dishwasher-safe dessert spoon lies particularly comfortably in the hand. In combination with the dessert spoon and fork, the contemporary pieces transform any tableware into a special eye-catcher.

About Christofle

For the L'âme de Christofle series, the traditional French company collaborated with Ibiza-born designer Eugeni Quittlet, known for his work in the most prestigious luxury and interior design companies. The result is something to be proud of: Clean, innovative lines and purist elegance merge to create a distinctive, modern collection. PVD stands for "Physical Vapor Deposition": A layer of colored metal (a mixture of titanium, chrome and zirconium) is applied to the stainless steel cutlery in the form of steam in a vacuum atmosphere.

The traditional French company Christofle is a master in the processing of silver. With passionate craftsmanship and perfection, the luxury brand produces exclusive cutlery, as well as tableware, jewelry, accessories, barware and home decoration in its manufactory in Yainville in Normandy. In doing so, Christofle combines tradition and expertise from almost 200 years of company history with the highest quality, elegance and zeitgeist in its exquisite products.
