Organic and sensual, the Mercy ring wraps gently around your finger while serving as an emotional reminder to always be compassionate.

The fluid shape of the ring symbolises the way life transforms, and evolves through our experiences. The soft curves represent the flow of time and how its unexpected twists might define us. The gap in the ring reminds us to be aware of both the present moment, and the unknown that lies ahead.

The Mercy collection was designed by Jacqueline Rabun. She believes that jewellery should empower you with confidence and strength. As a designer Rabun finds inspiration in the human experiences; the wonderful moments, but also the challenges.

The Mercy ring is expertly crafted from sterling silver. The Mercy ring is available in two versions; small and large. This is the small version which is more light in its expression.
