A bold and voluminous statement piece.

The Mercy bangle is a powerful and expressive piece of jewellery, and there is a distinct sculptural feeling to it.

American designer Jacqueline Rabun, a long-time Georg Jensen-collaborator known for her organic and emotionally charged jewellery, is the woman behind the Mercy collection. She has once again created a playful and timeless range of rings, bracelets and ear rings based upon a strong story-telling foundation.

The fluid shape of the Mercy bangle symbolises the way life transforms and the soft lines represent the flow of time and how its twists and turns come to define us. The opening in the bangle serves as a reminder to take stock once in a while – and think about where you are in life.

The Mercy bangle is expertly crafted from sterling silver. It has an integrated hinge lock that makes it easy to open and close the bangle.
