About Aurélien Barbry

Aurélien Barbry graduated from Ecole Camondo Paris as an industrial and interior designer. He started his career by working with famous architect Jean Nouvel. Aurélien Barbry set up his own studio in 2007 and is now based in Copenhagen. He has collaborated with several Danish and international furniture and product producers as Georg Jensen, Le Klint, Normann Copenhagen, Vipp, Cor, and interior design for Issey Miyake among others. His works has received international prizes as the Cologne Interior innovation award 2010 and has recently exhibited in Milan, Madrid, Cologne, Paris.... "Design is an exercise where you take the simplest things in your daily life and ask yourself how they could be done differently. I want to move objects towards simplicity and obviousness of the form so it becomes dialogue with the end user. Reinstate everyday forms, simple and accurate."
