Baobab, My First Baobab, Diffuser 0.25 l Gentleman

The 15 cm tall diffuser Gentleman from Baobab's My First Baobab collection features a fine silkscreen decoration in platinum and blue, which reflects the typical color variations of classic menswear. The black Bakelite cap with engraved root motif sits like a crown upon the straight-lined glass vessel, while the same pattern can be found on the base. The diffuser can be used to diffuse 0.25 liters of scents such as rum, saffron and labdanum.

About Baobab

Classic elegance – for women and gentlemen. This collection by Baobab not only spreads exceptional fragrances in beautifully designed scented candles and diffusers, but also an important message: It supports breast cancer research and draws the topic into the spotlight.

A pinch of internationality, a splash of tasteful design and a large helping of high-quality materials: The recipe for success for Baobab's exceptional scented candles is anything but conventional. The Belgian company demonstrates the sophistication of European craftsmanship in harmony with minimalist mondial design – all in the form of candle creations that offer a unique olfactory experience.
