Christofle, Origine, espresso spoon

With the Origine series, Christofle Design Studio reinterprets a traditional flatware model. Elegant, modern and unconventional – this is the design of the cutlery, which has a short, protruding knife blade and a full, droplet-shaped handle. The 10-cm-long espresso spoon made from stainless steel is dishwasher-safe and feels light and fluid in the hand. For unforgettable coffee and mocha moments, it can be combined with the dessert cutlery, forming an original yet modern eye-catcher.
