Large drinking glasses in the popular Pilastro series – perfect for both everyday use and special occasions. Francis Cayouette is the designer behind the Pilastro drinking glasses. Like the rest of the Pilastro series, the design was inspired by the Art Déco style of the 1920s, and the conical shape and grooved design of the drinking glasses make them both streamlined and elegant. The drinking glasses are ideal for water, juice or drinks, and are also suitable for hot drinks such as coffee and tea. All in all, a great everyday glass that looks elegant but is also sturdy and can easily withstand daily use and the dishwasher.

Functional and minimalist design
