Strands of stainless steel twist around to form this totally contemporary reworking of a bread or fruit basket. The fluid, organic shape makes it an eye-catching addition to a kitchen counter as well as a perfect centrepiece for a dining table.

Designed by German-born Constantin Wortmann, Cobra is one of Georg Jensen's most recognisable and best-loved collections. Working to the philosophy that form should follow emotion, Wortmann's creations make a strong visual impact but with a sense of humour that gives them a universal appeal.

The basket is beautifully crafted from mirror-polished stainless steel.
