Minimalist Scandinavian design and superb Swiss technology come together in this sophisticated and elegant stainless steel watch. At the same time classic and contemporary, it has a pure white dial with simple hands and discrete minute markers whilst the hand-stitched calf skin strap adds a touch of understated luxury.

One of our most notable collaborators, Henning Koppel's name is synonymous with mid century Scandinavian design. His love of simplicity, craftsmanship and functionality make his work truly timeless and he continues to influence and inspire designers to this day.

The 38 mm stainless steel case of this Koppel watch houses a Swiss made quartz movement. The strap is hand-stitched black calf skin.
