Product information "Speaker WILLEN Black and Brass"

WILLEN

Willen is the mighty wireless speaker that is made to go everywhere with you. This speaker brings you the heavy Marshall sound you love with one 2" full range driver and two passive radiators. This outdoor speaker couldn't care less about what you throw at it with its top-of-class IP67 dust- and water-resistance rating. Willen brings together the iconic Marshall design with a ruggedness that dares you to push its limits. All this, plus its hefty 15+ hours of listening on a single charge and mounting strap mean that Willen is raring to go wherever you go.

TAKE MARSHALL SOUND WITH YOU, EVERYWHERE

Willen is the mighty portable speaker that is made to go everywhere with you. Power your music with Marshall signature sound every single time, even when the session isn't planned.

DESIGN THAT SHAKES OFF THE ELEMENTS

Willen comes with a top-of-class IP67 dust- and water-resistance rating so it's always ready for the road. This speaker brings together the iconic Marshall design with a ruggedness that dares you to push its limits.

PLAYTIME THAT WON'T LET YOU DOWN

Willen is ready to roll whenever you are with a hefty 15+ hours of portable playtime on a single charge. Whenever you need to top up its battery, 3 hours of charging will bring it back to full power.

A SUSTAINABLE APPROACH TO MUSIC

Willen is just as impressive when you go backstage. This speaker's rugged build is PVC-free and 60% of the plastic is post-consumer recycled from used electronics. Willen delivers on the promise of a more sustainable approach from Marshall while retaining the iconic design that embodies the brand's heritage.

ATTACH WILLEN ANYWHERE WITH THE STRAP

Willen is the ultimate multi-purpose speaker with its flexible positioning. Stand it up, lay it down, fix it to an object or let it hang out with its rubber back-mounted strap.
