Christofle, Mood, espresso spoons 6-piece rose gold-plated with case (copper-colored design egg)

The 6-piece set of silver-plated espresso spoons refined with 18-carat rose gold is an extension of Christofle's Mood series and, like its larger predecessors, boasts a puristic design and clear, timeless lines. Stored in the avant-garde design egg, French manufacturer Christofle reinterprets the rules of dining culture and offers unforgettable, elegant coffee moments. The mirror polished copper-colored stainless steel egg is adorned with the Christofle coat of arms on the outside, while the inside features a walnut wood insert which holds the six dishwasher-safe espresso spoons. Sugar sachets can be offered in the central rounded opening. This eye-catcher is also available in the same size in a mirror polished stainless steel design egg with silver-plated espresso spoons.
